IRIS® Media

Welcome!

Under the roof of the Vision Media Group IRIS® Media and IRIS® Technologies GmbH explore new configurations of media technologies and their implementation to provide expert perspectives for the future of communications, alongside effective and creative solutions for your communication needs and strategies in the digital age.

This IRIS® Media website provides an overview of our latest thinking with access to information summarising more than 30 years of professional activity and experience, ranging from today's implementation of DVB-T/S and (3)D-Cinema, way back to contributions in the development of media-arts, -events and -education.

Questions, suggestions and enquiries are welcome!

Wolf Siegert Ph.D.
